

Middle East Media Personnel Needs

Middle East Media is seeking individuals from a variety of backgrounds and experience levels who have a heart for the MENA region to join us for at least one year as we seek to transform lives through media. All applicants must be committed to the purposes and values of Middle East Media. All positions are self-supported unless otherwise indicated. Applicants from the MENA region are highly desired, and while knowledge of Arabic is not essential, it would be helpful.

For further information on each role please contact comms@mem.org.
